

L3 LINK AWARDED FLIGHT SCHOOL XXI CONTRACT MODIFICATION TO UPDATE AND SUPPLY CH-47F OPERATIONAL FLIGHT TRAINERS

Legacy L3 Press Release

AUG 8, 2017

ARLINGTON, Texas, August 8, 2017 – L3 Link Simulation & Training (L3 Link) announced today that it has been awarded a contract modification from CSRA to deliver a fourth CH-47F Chinook Operational Flight Trainer (OFT) in the current aircraft configuration for the U.S. Army’s Flight School XXI (FSXXI) program. The contract also includes the upgrade of the three existing CH-47F OFTs to the current aircraft configuration.

“With the fourth CH-47F OFT and the modernization of the three previously delivered OFTs, Flight School XXI demonstrates its ongoing commitment to training the world’s finest combat-ready helicopter pilots,” said Dan Pedersen, L3 Link Vice President of Programs. “L3 Technologies’ partnership with CSRA continues to provide the warfighter with realistic visual simulation and current mission software, significantly improving training quality.”

The fourth CH-47F OFT will be delivered to match the U.S. Army’s latest aircraft configuration Operational Flight Program (OFP) and will include upgrading the visual display to the latest technology available.

Flight School XXI, recognized as the largest helicopter simulation training program in the world, annually trains 1,200 new student pilots to become combat mission aviators. In addition, each year 1,600 rated Army aviators undergo training that enables them to operate a new aircraft platform.
