

CAE and Global Jet renew pilot training agreement for five years

Geneva, Switzerland, May 25, 2022 – CAE announced today at the 2022 European Business Aviation Convention and Exhibition (EBACE2022) that it has extended its business aviation, commercial aviation and maintenance training agreement with Global Jet, a premier business aviation services provider and operator, until 2026.

“From Commercial Aviation Training to Business Aviation Training, Global Jet is happy to have a partner like CAE with innovative training on a wide range of aircraft at locations around the world,” said Antoine David, Managing Director, Global Jet. “Thanks to the training they receive at CAE, our pilots and maintenance technicians have the knowledge and skills needed to ensure the safety of our operations and the success of our business.”

“CAE is uniquely positioned to provide pilot and maintenance training to Global Jet, whose diverse fleet includes both business jets and bizliners,” said Nick Leontidis, CAE’s Group President, Civil Aviation. “This contract renewal is a testament to CAE’s expertise in business and commercial aviation and the tailored training we have been proud to deliver to Global Jet for more than 15 years.”

As part of this agreement, CAE will provide training on the Challenger 300/350, Challenger 604, Global Express, Global Vision, Global 7500, Falcon 7X EASy II, Falcon 2000 EASy II, Falcon 900 EX, Falcon 900 EASy II, Airbus A320, Airbus A330, Boeing 767, Boeing 787, Boeing 737/BBJ and Embraer ERJ145 platforms.
