CAE Oxford Aviation Academy partners with BBVA to offer a loan program to enable aspiring pilots in France to fund their training

Le Bourget, Paris, France, February 7, 2014 - CAE Oxford Aviation Academy (CAE OAA) and BBVA today announced the introduction of a special loan program to assist aspiring pilots in France to fund their pilot training at one of CAE Oxford Aviation Academy's flight schools.

Under the partnership with BBVA in France, candidates who apply to CAE Oxford Aviation Academy and successfully pass the skills assessment process will have the possibility of qualifying for the loan, subject to a number of other financial terms and conditions being met.

Applicants can apply for up to 100% of the training fees to be covered by the BBVA loan plus additional funding towards accommodation and living expenses during training.

A similar program offered by CAE Oxford Aviation Academy and BBVA in the UK has enabled hundreds of aspiring pilots to enrol in pilot training and achieve their ambition of becoming professional airline pilots with many of Europe's leading airlines.
