

CAE expands business aviation footprint in North America with the addition of a CAE-built Bombardier Challenger 604 full-flight simulator

Orlando, Florida, October 16, 2018 (NYSE: CAE; TSX: CAE) – CAE announced today at the 2018 National Business Aviation Association (NBAA) Convention & Exhibition the expansion of its business aviation training footprint at its CAE Dallas training centre with the addition of a CAE-built Bombardier Challenger 604 full-flight simulator (FFS).

“We are excited to expand our training footprint in North America with our first Bombardier Challenger 604 training program in the United States, now available for training at CAE Dallas,” said Nick Leontidis, CAE’s Group President, Civil Aviation Training Solutions. “This latest addition complements our Bombardier offering and we are glad to build on our partnership with Bombardier as its authorized training provider.”

The Bombardier Challenger 604 FFS was delivered to the CAE Dallas training centre in Texas earlier this fall and is now ready for training. In addition to CAE Dallas, Bombardier Challenger 604 training programs are available at CAE Amsterdam and CAE Dubai.

A Bombardier Challenger 604 full-flight simulator (FFS) is now ready for training in CAE Dallas.
