CAE introduces next-generation CAE Simfinity integrated procedures trainer (IPT)

Orlando, Florida, USA, April 15, 2012 – (NYSE: CAE; TSX: CAE) – CAE today announced on the eve of the World Airline Training Conference and Tradeshow (WATS 2012) that it has developed a next-generation CAE Simfinity™ integrated procedures trainer (IPT) with an enhanced virtual cockpit which offers higher-resolution graphics, multi-touch screens, and a new aircraft-like interface action for sliding levers or turning knobs. The CAE Simfinity IPT also offers optional primary and secondary controls, sound and visual simulation for a more immersive experience.

CAE will demonstrate the next-gen IPT in an Airbus A320 configuration in Booth #115 at WATS. The new IPT is also available for A330, A350, Boeing 737 and other aircraft platforms upon request.

CAE is a global leader in modeling, simulation and training for civil aviation and defense. The company employs more than 7,500 people at more than 100 sites and training locations in more than 25 countries. CAE offers civil aviation, military and helicopter training in 40 locations worldwide. The company trains more than 80,000 crewmembers yearly. CAE's business is diversified, ranging from the sale of simulation products to providing comprehensive services such as training and aviation services, professional services and in-service support. The company aims to apply its simulation expertise and operational experience to help customers enhance safety, improve efficiency, maintain readiness and solve challenging problems. CAE is now leveraging its simulation capabilities in new markets such as healthcare and mining. www.cae.com
