Trade Press Release

Emirates-CAE Flight Training and CAE sign three-year contract with ExecuJet for pilot and technical training on more than 30 business aircraft types

Geneva, Switzerland, May 4, 2010 – (NYSE: CAE; TSX: CAE) – Emirates-CAE Flight Training (ECFT) and CAE announced today at the European Business Aviation Convention and Exhibition (EBACE) the signing of a three-year contract with ExecuJet Aviation Group for pilot and technical training services on more than 30 aircraft types – including models for Bombardier, Cessna, Dassault, Gulfstream, Hawker, King Air, Turbo Commander and Westwind. The training will be conducted at four sites across CAE’s global network of aviation training centres: ECFT in Dubai, UAE, and CAE business aviation training centres in the London (Burgess Hill) UK, New York (Morristown, NJ), and Dallas, Texas areas.

“We are very pleased with the flexible service and high-quality instruction our pilots and aircraft maintainers receive from the entire Emirates-CAE Flight Training and CAE team,” said Quintin Cairncross, Operations Director, ExecuJet Middle East. “We look forward to consolidating our partnership as we continue to grow our business.”

“We are delighted that ExecuJet has continued confidence in CAE to help them achieve their training objectives and be successful in their business model,” said Jeff Roberts, CAE Group President, Civil Simulation Products, Training and Services. “More of the world’s corporate flight operations are discovering our cost-effective, best-in-class training programs and appreciate how CAE is able to tailor training services to meet their unique operational needs.”
