

Garuda Indonesia takes crew planning optimization to new heights with CAE Flight Operations Solutions

Montreal, Canada, April 25, 2023 (NYSE : CAE; TSX : CAE) – CAE announced today that Garuda Indonesia will upgrade its crew planning capabilities and migrate to the newest version of CAE Crew Planner with optimizers that will deliver greater efficiency and cost savings for the airline. Garuda will continue to manage its operations using CAE Operations Control and CAE Crew Management as part of a contract extension for CAE’s Flight Operations Solutions.

The latest version of CAE Crew Management will enable Garuda to automate and digitize its flight operations functions. With the optimized CAE Crew Planner, Garuda will further be able to reduce costs with intelligent optimization that brings greater efficiencies to its operations.

“As a longstanding partner and user of CAE’s Operations Control and Crew Management solutions, we are thrilled to have Garuda migrate to the latest version of CAE Crew Planner,” said Pascal Grenier, CAE’s Senior Vice President, Flight Services & Global Operations. “We are excited to strengthen our relationship with Garuda and are confident that CAE’s powerful optimizers will deliver a step change in the efficiency and cost effectiveness of their flight operations.”

A robust solution for the complex world of aviation crew management, CAE’s Crew Management is a resource planning tool powered by artificial intelligence and machine learning that optimizes schedules, forecasts crew resources, maintains safety standards, and enables fast recovery from disruptions.

CAE’s Operations Control is a comprehensive, real-time, scalable, and configurable operations management system. This solution empowers operations controllers by enabling them to manage, communicate and recover faster and easier than ever before.
